

PUBLIC LANDS STEWARDS PROGRAM

AmeriCorps Position Description

Position Title: Wilderness Trails Ranger (2 positions)

Project Sponsor: US Forest Service, Okanogan – Wenatchee National Forest

Project Sponsor Mission: The mission of the USDA Forest Service is to sustain the health, diversity, and productivity of the Nation's forests and grasslands to meet the needs of present and future generations.

MAI Mission: Public Lands Stewards is a program of the Mt. Adams Institute (MAI). MAI's mission is to strengthen the connection between people and the natural world through education, service learning, career development and research. <http://www.mtadamsinstitute.org>

Project Location: Chelan Ranger District, 428 West Woodin Ave, WA 98816. The duty station is Chelan, WA and the primary work sites are primitive settings in the Glacier Peak and Lake Chelan Sawtooth Wilderness Areas. Access to these sites and trailheads is only by boat on Lake Chelan; there are no roads (or cell phone service) to these villages, sites, or trailheads.

The “uplake” part of 55 mile long and 1 mile wide Lake Chelan (an inland fiord) is one of the deepest gorges in the United States with elevation gains of 7,000 ft (between the shores of Lake Chelan and the passes over the surrounding ridge tops). Holden Village, an old mining company town but now a retreat center affiliated with the Lutheran Church, is located 12 miles up Railroad Creek, an “uplake” side drainage to Lake Chelan, and is reached by FS vehicles or Holden buses operating on the road between Lucerne Landing (on the shore of Lake Chelan) and Holden Village. During the busy summer months, Holden Village will house up to 400 visitors on a daily basis. <http://www.holdenvillage.org>

The Lyman Lake area is an 8-10 mile hike from Holden Village into the Glacier Peak Wilderness' subalpine & alpine basins of Upper & Lower Lyman Lakes and Cloudy and Suiattle Passes. Agnes Creek, also in the Glacier Peak Wilderness, has 18 miles of the Pacific Crest trail from Suiattle Pass down to the North Cascades National Park at the High Bridge Trailhead along the Stehekin River.

Position Summary: In partnership with the Mt. Adams Institute, spend the summer and fall maintaining trails & camp sites and educating backcountry hikers on Leave No Trace principles in the rugged North Cascades backcountry. This position assures wilderness sites and trails are maintained to Forest Service standards, and are safe and pleasing to visitors. This position is perfect for a person who has a passion for being in the mountains and experience “living” in the backcountry.

The service locations vary from established administrative work areas to mountainous wilderness areas. 90% of the work and related travel & living, is performed outdoors. The position requires strenuous physical exertion, including walking in steep or uneven terrain, heavy lifting, carrying backpacks up to 50 pounds or more. Exposure to extreme weather and temperature is expected. The position requires primitive living and camping skills as interns will live in the backcountry while working. The work schedule is 10 days “on” (Tues-Thurs) and 4 days “off” (every other Fri-Mon). The first day of each tour is spent at the Chelan Ranger District office complex and the remaining 9 days of the tour are spent onsite in the Glacier Peak and Lake Chelan-Sawtooth Wilderness areas.

General Responsibilities (to include, but not limited to):

1. Use primitive tools (hand saws, axes, hoes, loppers, shovels, picks, and especially cross-cut saws) safely to maintain wilderness & non-wilderness trails.
2. Utilize a cross-cut saw and other tools to clear trails. Training provided and includes on-the-job training by working with the Forest Service trail crew.
3. Demonstrate and educate visitors on tread lightly, leave-no-trace, and proper backcountry use ethics, and practices. Training provided.
4. Clearly communicate with members of the public, other trail maintenance volunteers, and Forest Service employees in a friendly and non-confrontational manner.
5. Contact all types of trail users, provides trail information, promote cooperation, and share educational points on wilderness Leave No Trace practices.
6. Keep a daily log of work activities, daily visitor contact data, trail survey data, and trail conditions.
7. Document trail user contacts; maintain daily log and computer input of trail users contact data (date, area contacted, type of trail use, and trail users' origin).
8. Report, document and computer input trail conditions (access due to snow depths, trees down, washouts, needed drainage, etc.), and conduct and computer input of trail surveys. Training provided.
9. Live safely in the backcountry and set the example for others by observing and adhering to Wilderness regulations, guidelines, and ethics, regarding leave-no-trace use practices.
10. Become educated on current issues, and controversial use practices effecting wilderness recreation.
11. Attend and complete all MAI/AmeriCorps training and service requirements including orientation, training, and national service days.
12. Complete and submit all necessary MAI/AmeriCorps paperwork and reports in a timely manner.
13. Wear an MAI uniform and/or appropriate identifiers and required safety gear while performing service or attending official events.
14. Member will not engage in prohibited AmeriCorps activities as outlined in the member handbook and agreement.

Position Requirements:

3. Travel, work and live safely in mountainous wilderness settings and/or remote community setting, including proper & safe use of backpacking & camping equipment during work tours trips.
4. Work alone and/or with many diverse people (land & resource managers, other Forest Service trail crew employees, forest volunteers, and forest users) in both an office and field setting.
5. Work cooperatively with co-workers on 9-day wilderness trips that are spent working, traveling & living with a small group of diverse individuals.
6. Able to safely spend extended periods alone and/or with small crews in the wilderness and be self-sufficient for up to 9 days.
7. Physically fit, able to safely walk long distances (5-20 miles/day) over extended periods of time, in a steep mountain environment.
8. Able to safely carry heavy backpack loads (45-55 lbs.) for long distances and requiring steep elevation gains (as much as 2000-5000 vertical feet a day).
9. Able to proficiently & safely use hand tools for long periods of time.
10. Able to tolerate extreme heat and cold; season will start with snow on the ground and end with snow on the ground, in between it will be hot and dusty.
11. Communicate clearly with members of the public, Holden trail maintenance volunteers, and Forest Service employees.

12. Enthusiastic about all types of wilderness trail recreation and being in wilderness in all types of weather.
13. The Ranger will serve on wilderness and non-motorized trail systems. Ranger will ideally have a background which includes experience with the area's various types of trail uses, including knowledge of the effects of recreation on high elevation environments, and be able to clearly communicate a tread lightly message while educating users on proper travel and leave-no-trace techniques. The Ranger will rotate tours between the trails around Holden Village (Lyman Lake/Pacific Crest Trail) and tours with the Chelan Trail Crew. The mix of duty locations will vary each trip.
14. During the months of May and October the Rangers may work on the Echo Ridge Trail System located 10 miles from Chelan. Overnight stays in the backcountry will not be required during this period
