HOUSING:
Mt. Adams Institute strengthens the connection between people and the natural world through education, service learning, career development and research.

- Free housing provided by Forest Service. This will be rustic, bunkhouse-style housing with 2 people sharing a sleeping cubicle. The intern will share the house with other Forest Service staff. Wifi is available within the housing but is very slow, it is also available in the office. Cell service is extremely limited in Ukiah, OR.

TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION:
- Project site is not accessible by public transportation.
- Agency vehicles are available for work-related travel.
- Interns must have their own vehicle to access supplies/equipment and to travel on days off.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:
- Ukiah, OR is a very remote town, with a population of about 260 people. Cell phone service is extremely limited. Ukiah has a post office, general store, and one restaurant. Gas is not available in Ukiah for personal use (there is gas for Forest Service vehicles). The nearest full service towns with grocery stores and gas stations are located 1 hour away - La Grande, OR (55 miles) and Pendleton, OR (49 miles). Interns should consider this, and only apply if they are comfortable with this living situation.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION:
MAI celebrates equity, diversity, and inclusiveness and does not discriminate against any person or group based on race, ethnicity, culture, age, gender, sexual orientation, expression, gender identity, ability, national origin or ancestry, veteran status, social economic class, religion, professional status, pregnancy, or parents/guardians with children. MAI is committed to a diverse workplace and to supporting our Interns and staff with trainings and career development opportunities.

MAI provides reasonable accommodations to applicants and employees. Applicants with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation and/or alternative formats at any point in the employment process.
